

Dishes to (re)discover

Valais fera lake fish

We in the Valais sometimes forget that we too possess a little bit of Lake Geneva.

*So we can consider that the fera (Coregonus palaea) is also a Valais fish.
We are happy to have you (re)discover the fera prepared in five different ways.*

“Sapin Blanc” special salad (lettuce, lardons, croutons, fera liver)

Fera lake fish rillettes

Fera lake fish tartare with garnish

Saltimbocca of Fera lake fish fillet

Bread of bygone days

*Ah, the bread of bygone days:
prepared with the flour from forgotten cereals grown by Cédric Chezeaux
of La Ferme Arc-en-Ciel,
leavened slowly and kneaded by hand by Stéphane Marguet of Le Pain que j’aime.*

You might like to rediscover a bread low in gluten, rich in flavours, just as it should be.

Bon appétit!
